

The DEAF BAYOU e-news

LoUISIANA's e-news for the Deaf, DeafBlind, & Hard-of-Hearing community citizens

Vol. 14; Issue 66
September 17, 2019

Tuesday,

Dan Arabie

Founder/CEO

DEAFBAYOU@gmail.com

Proud Sponsors: AF, CML, & WE

This was an enquiry e-mail via DEAFBAYOU@gmail.com from HKDBA.

NOTE: For your information, we now have very few bus seats so better hurry and book.

Bonjour!

I'm excited to share this information with you about a historic trip to Alabama.

Don't miss out!

Sincerely,

Dan Arabie, Chair of 2020 HKDBA

Join us on a historic trip to

Tuscumbia & Huntsville, Alabama

for the

140th Anniversary of Birthplace of Helen Keller

and

NASA Space Center

Arranged by

Louisiana Helen Keller DeafBlind Awareness committee

When: Friday, June 26th, 2020 to Sunday, June 28th, 2020

Cost: Only $30.00 each to reserve a seat for a round-trip 56-passenger chartered coach bus
(Limited Space – First Come, First 56 Paid)

Events/Trip Itinerary/Schedules

Friday, June 26th:

- First Spot (6:00 AM): Pick-up in Lafayette, LA
- Second Spot (7:30 AM): Pick-up in Baton Rouge, LA
- 4:00 PM: Arrival of Coldwater Inn in Tuscumbia, Alabama
- 6:30 PM: Performance play, 'Miracle Worker' at the back lawn of HK's home

Saturday, June 27th:

- 10:00 AM: Tour at the Birthplace of Helen Keller (HK)
- 1:00 PM: Shop/Tour at the festival of Arts & Crafts
- 7:00 PM: Catered Banguet at the Coldwater Inn with a guest speaker:

Keller Thompson, great grand neice of Helen Keller

Sunday, June 28th:

- 11:00 AM: NASA Space Center, Huntsville, Alabama
- 2:00 PM: Home-bound to Louisiana!

If interested, please contact Dan Arabie, chair of 2020 LA HKDBA first to see if there is still available for 56-passenger coach bus before you mail the payment directly to Maria Annis, Treasurer.

Should you have any further question or comment, Dan Arabie can be reached by e-mail at LSUCajunDan@gmail.com or by text at (337) 388-7505.

© 2005-2019 The DEAF BAYOU e-news. All Rights Reserved.

The DEAF BAYOU e-news serves as an independent subscription, created by Dan Arabie, Founder/CEO. The purpose of the DEAF BAYOU e-news is to strongly state our needs in sharing with the diverse of deaf, deafblind, & hard-of-hearing citizens, especially 24K 'Golden Hands' interpreters in our community to KEEP DEAF ALIVE.

Let our HANDS be heard!

NOTE: You can surely acknowledge your friends about The DEAF BAYOU e-news to subscribe.

Should you have any question\(s\) or comment\(s\) about the DEAF BAYOU e-news, please do not hesitate \(feel free\) to contact the CEO Dan at DEAFBAYOU@gmail.com Thank you for your continued support.

Au Revoir - Deaf Bayours,

Dan Arabie, LSD '80; GU '14

Founder & CEO, The DEAF BAYOU e-news

DEAF BAYOU Office

Lafayette, Louisiana USA

Home of Cajun Country – Heart of Acadiana

E: DEAFBAYOU@gmail.com

P: (337) 541-0985

T: (337) 388-7505