

MARDI GRAS BREAK FROM SCHOOL

Soon, it will be time for Mardi Gras Break!

That means I will stay home and there will be no school for a few days.

During the break, I won't ride the bus or see my teacher or classroom.  I will have time at home, or maybe I will go do something fun with family or friends.

Some people celebrate Mardi Gras with parades, music, and bright colors.

  I might see floats, beads, or people in costumes. It can be fun, noisy, and exciting! But it's okay if I want to wear headphones or take breaks.

While I'm out of school, I can still do fun things at home:

Play with my toys  _ Watch my favorite show  _ Read books or rest

If I feel sad or confused, I can:

Talk to a grown-up  _ Look at a calendar  Use my calm-down tools

After Mardi Gras Break is over, I will go back to school.  I will see my teacher, classroom, and friends again!

Taking a break helps me rest and recharge.  I can enjoy my Mardi Gras Break and be ready to learn again after!
