

NADD 36TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE & EXHIBIT SHOW

OCTOBER 23-25, 2019 | ASTOR CROWNE PLAZA HOTEL | NEW ORLEANS, LA

Parading Through Life: Celebrating Resilience, Joy and Wellness...Letting the Good Times Roll in New Orleans

Do you have a child or family member with an intellectual/developmental disability and mental health need?

Now is your chance to attend a NADD conference, ask questions and find more resources for your family member with an intellectual/developmental disability and a mental health need.

NADD is an association for persons with developmental disabilities and mental health needs, established for professionals, care providers, family advocates and policy makers. NADD provides leadership in the expansion of knowledge, training, policy and advocacy for mental health practices that promote a quality of life for individuals with IDD/MII.

Recipients and families who are interested in attending are encouraged to contact their local Families Helping Families for possible stipend assistance. Currently, there is the availability of "travel stipends to attend Behavioral Health Workshops & Conferences". Please call 225-216-7474 ext. 201 for details.

Families who receive Louisiana OCDD's Children's Choice waiver may also wish to contact their Support Coordinator about the possibility of registration being considered under the "Family Training" service. This option does not cover other travel costs.

Do you want to learn about promising practices?

Do you want an opportunity to meet professionals on the cutting edge of research and services?

Do you want to meet other people who understand what you're going through?

Can't make both days? A one day option is available.
