Ms. Leanne Grillot is the National Director of Outreach Services for the American Printing House for the Blind, Inc. This position directs the operations of APH's Outreach Services Department, which provides consultation, support, and other services to Ex Officio Trustees, professionals in the field of vision, families of people who are visually impaired, and consumers. Outreach Services links APH with educational practice in the field of vision and promotes sound models of best practice. She also provides adjunct instruction at Florida State University vision program while slowly pursuing her PhD. Ms. Grillot worked for over 20 years in three of the largest states as a teacher of students who have a visual impairment and as an orientation and mobility specialist.
