

LSU Health
NEW ORLEANS

INTRODUCING COMMUNITY HEALTH INITIATIVES

The Human Development Center (HDC) at LSU Health New Orleans needs your help to foster health opportunities in our community.

COMMUNITY DRIVEN

Partner with communities to address their health-related priorities

INTERGRATED INVOLVEMENT

Team with communities to enhance quality of life for ALL community members

BEYOND
HEALTHCARE

Address root causes of disparities in health, education, economic stability, neighborhood & social circumstances

LET'S COLLABORATE!

We seek LSUHSC and community partners to join our programming! If you are interested in this initiative, contact Michael Norman at mnorm2@lsuhsc.edu.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT CENTER
BUILDING CAPACITY • INSPIRING CHANGE

ADDRESSING HEALTH DISPARITIES

THAT EXIST
BEYOND
HEALTHCARE

Economic Stability

Education Access & Quality

Health Care
Access & Quality

Neighborhood & Built Environment

Social & Community
Context

Our initiatives target social determinants of health to improve community well-being and quality-of-life.

CONTACT US

Michael C. Norman, Ph.D.
Initiative Lead

 504 556 3455

 mnorm2@lsuhsc.edu

 www.hdc.lsuhs.edu

ABOUT HDC

The Human Development Center (HDC) at LSU Health New Orleans is Louisiana's University Center of Excellence in Developmental Disabilities, serving our state through three initiative areas: Early Childhood, Innovations in Education and Transition, and Community Health.