Meet our Speaker

Our Presenter & Process Leader, David Wiley has recently retired after working with students who are DeafBlind since 1985. Mr. Wiley has provided consultation and training for families and professionals through the TX Deaf-Blind Project for over 30 years, taking the lead on transition planning and interagency coordination. He had served as the co-chair of the quarterly Texas Interagency Task Force on Deafblindness for over 20 years. Before joining the Project, he had experience managing residences for children and youth who are Deaf-Blind at Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired.

Register before midnight on 9/1/2023!
